Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 16-21 are pending. Applicant cancelled claims 1-15.
2. Applicant's proposed Amendment to the Specification is noted. The changes have been entered.
3. The proposed drawing corrections received October 15, 2003 are acceptable.
4. Applicant's response to the information request is noted from page 15 of the Response. Thus, it is the Examiner's position that Applicant has no information to disclose regarding the present Application.
5. Claims 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Taylor, US 5,899,981, in view of PR Newswire article "Leader In Corporate Travel Incentives, HMI, Inc., Launches Online Private Label Incentive Award & Travel Program" dated June 2, 2000.

Taylor discloses a process for processing expense claims comprising a server 12, a memory 28, 30, communication channels 26, 248, a bus entity (see Fig. 5c) and time keeping function (see Fig. 20C).

PR Newswire discloses common knowledge business practice of rewarding compliant employees with an award being granted to the employee when complying with appropriate guidelines, e.g. increasing a company's business performance.

To have provided an employee with an award for complying with specified guidelines for Taylor would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in view of PR Newswire. Doing such would reward efficient and productive employees with common knowledge employee incentive awards. It is noted that the computer system, e.g. server, memory, communication channels and bus are common knowledge elements extremely well known at the time the filing of the invention.

Applicant's comments that it is believed the combined references do not teach or suggest the claimed subject matter is noted, but not agreed with.

Also, it is noted that Applicant's independent claim language reads upon how the time and attendance employee data sheets for each two week period has been executed by United States Patent and Trademark personnel for an extended period of time prior to Applicant's filing date. The award generated consisted of a cash award for achieving objectives approved by a manager, e.g. a Director. Official Notice is taken of such.

6. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
